FACIAL NEURALGIA.

Mrs. C. S. Sagerser, 1311 Woodland Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes:

"I feel it a duty due to you and to others that may be afflicted like myself, to speak for Poruna.

"My trouble first came after a gripple eight or nine years ago, a gathering in my head and neuralgia. I suffered most all the time. My nose, ears and eyes were badly affected for the last two years. I think from your description of internal catarrh that I must have had that also. I suffered very severely.

"Nothing ever relieved me like Poruna. It keeps me from taking cold.

"With the exception of some deafness I am feeling perfectly cured. I am forty-six years old.

"I feel that words are inadequate to express my praise for Poruna.

Stomach Trouble Seven Years.

Mrs. T. Froeh, R. R. 1, Hickory Point, Tenn., writes:

"Having been afflicted with catarrh and stomach trouble for seven years, and after having tried four different doctors they only relieved me for a little while. I was induced to try Poruna, and I am now entirely well."

WANTS $480 ON AN ACCIDENT POLICY

William Denoyer, an Afton Miller, seeks to recover for injury in Sawmill—Motion for Non-Suit.

At the close of the plaintiff's testimony in the case of William Denoyer of Afton vs. the First National Accident Insurance Co., an action brought to recover $480 for the loss of a hand in sawmill accident, the defense this afternoon entered a motion for non-suit. The jury was temporarily excused and Judge Graham listened to the arguments. Attorney Stuart and Avery are counsel for the plaintiff and John T. Kelly, city attorney of Milwaukee, and O. A. Gostreich represent the defendant company. The insurance company claims that it only insured Mr. Denoyer as a miller and that his work in the sawmill adjacent to his plant was an extra hazard not covered in the policy.

FOUR AMERICAN CANDIDATES FOR RED HAT.
Center His Holiness, Pope Pius X. Left To Right At Top—Mgr. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul; Mgr. Quigley, Archbishop of Chicago and Archbishop Wm. H. O'Connell of Boston.

Pope.—The sudden change of the pope's plans which bring about a meeting of the consistory in December and another in the spring, again brings up the question of who will be honored from the United States.

There are at present no fewer than 17 vacancies in the Sacred College of Cardinals, and high hopes are entertained by Catholic dignitaries all over the world that at the coming consistory Pope Pius may bestow the red hat upon them.

Ordinarily the sacred college should consist of 70 cardinals, but this number has scarcely ever been reached. The members of the sacred college at present number only 53, of whom 23 are Italians. Some nations complain that they have been neglected lately, and many countries desire to be more fully represented in the highest body of the Roman Catholic church.

It is pointed out for instance, that there are 15,000,000 Catholics in the United States in addition to those in the Philippines, Porto Rico and Guam, and that therefore the United States becomes the fourth Catholic power in the world following immediately after France, Italy and Austria.

America has only one cardinal while Spain, with 18,000,000 Catholics and with considerably less influence in the world, has from five to seven cardinals.

The difficulty, however, is as to which candidates shall be chosen for the high position. Among the favorites are Mgr. Farley, the archbishop of New York, and Mgr. Quigley, the archbishop of Chicago, who have the largest number of Catholics in their dioceses. Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, is also supported as being the best exponent of the American spirit, and Mgr. Ryan, archbishop of Philadelphia, as being the doyen of American hierarchy.

England is another nation which is strongly advancing her claims to be honored by the pope. Ever since Cardinal Vaughan died in 1903 she has not had a cardinal of her own. Ireland even has only one cardinal, Archbishop Logue, archbishop of Armagh, but the Emerald Isle can claim to have two other cardinals, archbishop of Baltimore and Cardinal Moran, archbishop of Sydney.

England however will not now be satisfied with one cardinal as in the past. Ever since the death of Cardinal Vaughan it has been expected that Mgr. Bourne, archbishop of Westminster, would be raised to the sacred college, and now it is urged that Abbot Casquet the learned Benedictine to whom the pope has entrusted the great work of the revision of the Vulgate, is equally entitled to the honor. Canada is another candidate, and complains that she has been even longer without a cardinal—ever since the death in 1908 of the archbishop, her first cardinal. If Canada is favored, it is expected that the pope's choice will fall on either Mgr. Bruchési, the young and enterprising archbishop of Montreal or Mgr. Bégin, archbishop of Quebec the doyen of the Canadian episcopate.

IT IS.

THE SAVAGE BROTHERS IN THEIR FAMOUS RIOT, ENTITLED...
I LOVE MY PILGER, BUT OH YOU SCHLITZ!

Did You Ever Consider This?

WHEN YOU BUY BY MAIL.

You must pay the freight, which amounts to 5% or more. You must do your own delivering from railroad to premises. You must take it all at once, which necessitates storing. You may have too much, which perhaps will mean unnecessary waste. Your plans may be changed and you cannot return the material. You may not be satisfied with the quality. Had you seen it, you might not have taken it. You must pay cash before you get the material. (Buying a cat in the bag.) You will have to wait ten days or longer. You take a chance of getting the very poorest material that will grade up to specifications.

WHEN YOU BUY OF US.

We quote prices delivered. We deliver free. We deliver as you need it. If you have bought too much, you may return it and we refund the money. We will exchange the material. You see our material before you buy. You get our goods and pay afterwards. We always have stock on hand. The quality of our lumber is usually superior to grade specifications. You can see it before you buy. Let us figure your next bill in competition with the mail order houses, scalpers, etc. If our prices are not as low as any competitor, quality for quality, we do not expect the business.

White Cedar Posts

We have just received an excellent lot of split posts, cut out of 7-inch rounds, all live peeled and sound as a dollar. Not to be gotten everywhere. Our price, 18c each.

CONSERVATIVE DOCTRINE

The following dispatch comes from Corpus Christi, Texas:

"President Taft had something to say here Friday morning on another railroad agitation, and he said it with Governor Tom Campbell, one of the recent southern champions against the railroads, on the same platform with him.

"I am not in favor of legislation against the railroads," said the president,
"except when it is necessary to keep them within the law."

"He went on to say that the average community really voted bonds to get a railroad, and then when the paying of the interest on the bonds began to get troublesome, the community undertook to legislate against the road. The result usually was that the equipment of the road deteriorated, it was unable to earn a fair income on its investment, and the community's accommodations fell off. The community, in effect, was cutting off its nose to spite its face."

"Then," said he, "they realize that the only good and honest course is the square deal toward the railroads, so as to give them a reasonable return on the money invested." The crowd cheered, and Governor Campbell looked anything but enthusiastic.

"This is the keynote of the situation, and it remains to be seen whether the people possess the good hard common sense to wait patiently until President Taft has an opportunity to work out some of the problems which confront him, along conservative lines, or whether they will be stampeded by the oratory of a little band of insurgents bent on reforming everything in sight.

The masses are slow to learn, even by experience, and many people still recognize the fact that many states have gone duty on reform. In proof of this statement it is only necessary to recall some of the fool legislation which has cursed several of the western states. Wisconsin lends the precedent in this respect, and the state has suffered losses from which it will not recover in a decade.

The insurgent movement seeks to keep up this campaign through appeals to ignorance and prejudice, and the field is promising.

President Taft is a republican, pledged to serve the people fairly and impartially. Back of him is the best political organization which the country has ever known.

Opposed to him is Bryanism, which is anything but democracy, and a handful of camp followers, whose anticipation is to get to the front by absorbing the republican party and evolving a new aggregation to be known as the "progressive."

The claim they make is that the republican party is boss-ridden, and that a change of bosses is most desirable. When they make this claim they discredit President Taft and refuse to believe that he is honest.

The American people are justified with a sense of fairness and justice, and in the sober second thought,
which has come to many of them, they realize that it is time to call a halt on muckrakers and would-be reformers who play to the galleries for applause and plaudits.

The nation is recovering slowly from the campaign which has been waged against capital and corporate wealth and there is a disposition to give it a chance to regain its wonted vitality.

The man who attempts to retard this recovery is an enemy to the people, and should be so regarded.

THE TRAIL OF RESISTANCE

When a man starts out on a mission of investigation he can find most anything he is seeking for. If he visits a city in the interests of the church he mixes up with church people and decides that the town is a stronghold of piety.

If he goes down into the state of Maine looking for prohibition he meets it at every corner, or if on the other hand he wants a drink but little trouble is experienced in finding it, and he pronounces the prohibition law a fraud.

So, in every experience, the surface of least resistance appears on the surface, and influence the mind and judgment of the man who seeks to confirm his opinion.

The Chicago Tribune has a very bright correspondent known as "Raymond," who is the mouthpiece and authority for the paper on many important questions.

When the policy on any given question is determined "Raymond" is put on the job to exploit the policy and back it up by expressions of public approval.

The Tribune recently decided to oppose the central bank proposition, and "Raymond" was sent down to Washington to write a series of articles in defense of this policy. This crusade is still in progress, and to add to the general confusion John Callan O'Laughlin, another bright correspondent, was started out to size up the insurgent sentiment in the western states, for the Tribune has never developed much republican backbone and is wobbly as usual, in its support of the president, and the party which elected him.

O'Laughlin went out in search of insurgents and he found them in every look and corner, a vast horde of disgruntled people waiting for a new Moses to assume command and lead them out of the wilderness.

He finds that the war cry of the northwest is "Down with Cannonism," and inferentially, "Down with Taft and the republican party." He went out to find the enemy, and behold the enemy came out to meet him, and he captured the outfit and returned rejoicing to tell the story.

If memory is not at fault there was an election down in Danville, a while ago, in which the Methodists and union labor combined to defeat "Uncle Joe" with results not entirely satisfactory to the combination.

There are several people scattered through the western states who are still loyal to the republican party, and whose confidence in Taft and the administration is unshaken. They are not in sympathy with the insurgents and have no intention of joining the raid which these aspiring statesmen are attempting to organize.

The Tribune has so long been a political orphan that it aspires to be the organ of something, and to its distorted vision the new aggregation presents a promising outlook. The paper has been on the wrong side of so many questions that the republican party long since ignored its leadership.

The average voter is not a politician. He is so busy saving wood, just now, that he finds but little time for kicking. Taft is his president and he is satisfied to adjust himself to the new era of prosperity and make the most of it.

If the Tribune will call off its trouble hunters, or direct their energies into other channels it will be surprised to find how much there is to be thankful for. President Taft has lost nothing in stature or ability since his election and his administration will be wholesome and successful, in spite of backslappers and aspiring po-litionians.

BY ITS FRUITS
Here is a short, sensible editorial on the new tariff bill, from the Milwaukee Sentinel:

"Argument is lost on 'insurgent' annihilators of the Payne tariff. They have joined hands with Bryan in abusing the president for signing it, and drawn the voice of reason and moderation with catcalls and declamation.

"So it may be as well to leave the Payne tariff to its own defense before the people. The Payne tariff must be judged by its results.

"A crushing answer to the 'insurgent' theories and predictions of its bad results, would be an imposing show of good results after a year or so of trial.

"So let judgment be suspended until we can see how the Payne tariff really works. Should it work out in practice as badly as our 'insurgent' friends declare it will, why, we shall have to admit that they were right and we were wrong.

"Just at present things seem to be coming our way. The direful prediction, for instance, about its ruinous effect on our foreign trade is already going by the board.

"The blithesome Driscoll said of the bill that it would 'stifle our foreign commerce' if enacted. But does it?
Not yet, evidently. Our September exports were $14,500,000 greater than in the same month last year.

"Our conviction is that the Payne tariff will prove to be its own best defender.

"It will be hard to persuade people that a tariff under which trade and prosperity advance by leaps and bounds is a tariff of abominations."

The Milwaukee Free Press does not favor the Wisconsin law which provides for the commission plan of government, because it does not contain the recall. The attitude of the paper is not surprising, for it was so long under the dictation of La Follette that it is still tinged with many of his impractical notions.

PRESS COMMENT.

Milk and Beer.

The Milwaukee Eagle-Star suggests that Milwaukee in the future be known as the Milk City. "The national dairy show has decided to locate permanently in Milwaukee. The people of Milwaukee got it by attending the show in large numbers. The metropolis of Wisconsin is now the home of milk as well as beer."

Not By a Long Shot.

The Monasha Record's plaint may be personal when it says: "A male monkey in the Philadelphia zoo had to have his teeth filed in order to prevent his chewing the skin off of his wife. No amount of tooth filing will prevent some of the human monkeys of both sexes, from chewing the raw."

A Good Weapon.

The Wausau Record-Herald suggests that perhaps the women will have to take up this bank burglary detective business. Armed with bat-ons they would be more effective than some of these "armed possessors" which have been scouring the country.

Who Wants to Go?

The Eau Claire Telegram is delighted that report has it that the right excluding men from sessions of the Wisconsin Federation of Women's clubs has been rescinded. The complaint should be appreciated, and a large gallery should be the result.

Too Much Coin.

Judge, who says: "Sho—[has he enough money to get into society?] Ho—[better yet; he has enough so that he can stay out!"]

Make It $16.

The Madison Democrat says that on the other hand, the prudent young man will go slow in taking the advice of that Philadelphia cleric who advises marriage on $14 a week. It should be $15 at least.

Argument for Navigation.

The Evening Wisconsin offers a good argument for the plan of making the Rock river navigable when it says the Chicago military canal is used to be opened to lake navigators for a distance of twelve miles, to the new manufacturing town of Argos, by the completion of the last of a series of swing bridges across the waterway. When the canal was completed attention was called to the stationary bridges as evidence that the canal was to be a drainage ditch, after all, and the substitution of the swing bridges is evidence that the military canal trustees are convinced that there must be a display of interest in navigation.

It Was Ever Thus.

The Baltimore American has a truth in the following: "First student (in a burst of admiration): 'Professor Gabby is a wonder as a linguist.'
What tongue hasn't he mastered?'
Associate Professor (dryly): 'His wife's.'"

Lots of Opportunity.

The Louisville Courier Journal talks as follows: "Such the fatal style as yet? 'Not in detail,' answered the big importer, 'but I understand the press immigrants won't have any cause for complaint.'"

Watch Rock County.

The Fond du Lac Commonwealth says: "The good roads question is, after all, largely a business proposition. Every mile of good roadway added to the thoroughfares leading into a city increases the facilities by which the farmers may market their product, and increasing these facilities means more marketing and more buying."

Certainly We Are.

The Green Bay Gazette says: "Eldredly Wisconsin is in an extremely prosperous condition. The banks are loaded with funds and thus are tempting the bank robbers to renewed activity. Nowhere else in the union have so many bank robberies taken place in such a short length of time."

Where Are They?

The Sheboygan Press announces that men of integrity, who place honor above party, and find pleasure in serving the people are the class of public servants that are in demand today.

There Is Rockford.

The Milwaukee Sentinel remarks that now and then the fact comes out with force that marriage license laws save many a foolish young girl years of agony and repentance.

No, Nor Janesville Either.

The Milwaukee Journal believes that northern Wisconsin does not need a press agent these days.

A Widow's Discovery.

The Look on the Bright Side Society got down its ledger this afternoon and enrolled among the members the name of a newly made widow. "I missed John so much when I sat down to meals," she said, "that I began eating off the pantry shelf, and find in this way I do not have to clean my dining-room more than once a week, and it makes my work so much lighter."

Glass Tanks Replace Cement.

The wine storage houses in France are now using cement tanks lined with glass instead of old wooden ones.
The glass lining is used for two reasons—the acids in the liquor decompose the cement, while the cement absorbs the bouquet of the wine. A tank in Havre has a capacity of 250, 000 gallons.

Grammatical Criticism.

Carrie, aged four, and Jimmie, a year older, were making mud pies:
"Mo am going to have cherry pie," remarked Jimmie. "Mo am!" scorned Carrie; "that's a funny way to say I am!"—Dellencourt.

WILLIAM S. JOSEPH SCALDED IN KETTLE AT SLAUGHTERHOUSE

Butcher Employed by Geo. Yahn Suffered Horrible Injuries While Scalding Hogs Yesterday Afternoon.

William S. Joseph, employed at the meat market of George W. Yahn, fell into a kettle of boiling water at the slaughterhouse yesterday and terribly scalded, the burns extending down his back and limbs to his feet. His arms and hands are also badly injured, and his hips give him considerable pain.

The accident occurred about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, while Joseph and another workman, Edward Krouger, were engaged in scalding and slaughtering hogs. The tank of scalding water was about six feet high and had a cover which was not fastened. This one Joseph started to drag across to the scalding pot, a kettle with a capacity of about ten gallons. Krouger was at work scraping a hog and paid no attention to Joseph. He heard a splash but thought nothing of it, thinking that Joseph had pushed the hog in. A minute or so later he happened to look up to discover Joseph's head and feet sticking out of the kettle. He ran to the kettle and sticking his bare arms into the boiling water and under the arms of the man, pulled him out of the kettle. Krouger began cutting off his clothes. The skin came off with the garments and caused the man to cry out in agony. Krouger then ran a half mile to the nearest farm house and secured aid and fresh clothes for the man, who was taken to his home on Milton avenue. A physician was called to attend to his burns. Today, he is resting a little but cooler than yesterday but the pain is intense.

It is supposed that when Joseph was dragging the hog to the kettle, his foot slipped and he himself went over backward into it. The shock must have paralyzed him for he uttered no sound until pulled out of the children. The fact that he wore three pairs of trousers, rubber outfit, overalls and a heavy pair of cloth trousers undoubtedly saved him from being burned worse than he was. Krouger was burned about the arms in pulling the man out of the boiling water.

Robert Groshung Was Arrested by Officer Brown on Milwaukee St. Today on Charge on Theft.

On the charge of breaking into the Otto shop at Madison last Saturday night and stealing some $100 worth of automobile tires, spark plugs, and other accessories, which were sold to proprietors of several of the Janesville garages, Robert Groshung, age 29, was arrested by Officer John Brown on Milwaukee street this afternoon and will be taken back to the Capital City by Capt. Davenport of the Madison police force. The store is alleged to have been brought here in an automobile. It is alleged to have been found in the latter's room at the Y. M. C. A. building, but the latter maintains that he had no guilty knowledge of the transaction whereby Groshung is supposed to have gained possession of it. When the police made inquiries at the several local garages the first of the week, the managers all denied having purchased anything of a man answering to Groshung's description.

LIGHTNING DASH DOWN MILWAUKEE STREET HILL

Frightened Horse Demolished Wagon in Runaway on Main Streets Last Night.

Becoming frightened at the top of the East Milwaukee street hill last night about half past seven o'clock, a small horse attached to a light delivery wagon and driven by a lad named Hock, started on a mad dash down the hill. At the corner of South Main street, the wagon skidded and was demolished against the telephone pole in front of the lower city bank. The horse finally brought up in a heap on the sidewalk in front of Simpson's store where Officer Mason seized the horse and in spite of some frantic kicking held on until the animal could be dismounted from the broken harness. Except for the wagon, no damage was done nor did the driver receive any injuries.

COURT'S DECISION FREES SUGAR MEN

FAR-REACHING DECISION PERMITS THEM TO ESCAPE CRIMINAL PROSECUTION.

SETBACK TO GOVERNMENT

Judge Holt Holds That Those Indicted Along with American Refining Company Are Exempt—Because of Statute of Limitations.

New York, Oct. 22.—Judge Holt, of the United States circuit court, handed down a decision which will enable Gustav E. Kiesel and Thomas H. Harned, who were indicted with the American Sugar Refining Company on the charge of criminal conspiracy to escape prosecution under the provisions of the statute of limitations.

The opinion is a far-reaching one, according to the government attorneys, and, if upheld, is likely to prove a serious setback to the government in many cases brought under the law prohibiting conspiracy in restraint of trade.

Continuing Action Says United States.

The indictments were brought in connection with the closing of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company's independent plant in 1903. Kiesel and Harned pleaded that the plant was closed down and the entire transaction for which they were indicted was completed before January 4, 1903. Therefore, they said, the indictment, filed more than five years later, was barred under the statute of limitations, which sets a limit of three years for prosecution of "crimes not capital."

The government attorneys, on the other hand, pleaded that the crime charged against Kiesel and Harned was a "continuing offense," and that as long as the conspiracy continued, and the plant of the Pennsylvania company remained closed through the action of the American Sugar Refining Company, the three-year period of the statute of limitations should not begin to run.

COOK COUNTY SHERIFF FINED

Is Mulcted $500 and Costs for Contempt of Court.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—Sheriff Christopher Strassheim of Cook county was fined $500 and costs by the Illinois supreme court, which held him in contempt for failing to obey promptly the mandate of the court that Abner Smith, convicted of wrecking the Bank of America of Chicago be sent to the penitentiary at Joliet.

The case grew out of the efforts made by Smith and his friends to delay the infliction of the penalty on him, while he sought commutation of the sentence. Smith went to Joliet June 14, some months after his term was scheduled to begin. The delay of the sheriff in carrying out the mandate was commented on at the time and was generally ascribed to friendship, political and personal, for the convicted banker and former judge.

Strassheim, however, denied this, and said he was holding back under instructions from Gov. Deneen and E. A. Salvendy of the pardon board. The attitude of these officials, according to Strassheim, was due to promises by Smith that he would show what had become of some of the money contributed in the case.

Gov. Deneen has telegraphed Sheriff Strassheim that he will pay the fine imposed upon the Cook county official if the decision stands.

WAR INVOLVES FOUR REPUBLICS

Hostilities in Central America Have Broken Out and May Spread.

Panama, Oct. 22.—Central American is on the eve of a war which will involve four and possibly five republics. Hostilities have broken out between Nicaragua and Salvador, and within a week it is regarded as certain that Guatemala and Honduras will become involved. Official advices received here from Corinto announced that President Zelaya of Nicaragua had ordered hostilities against Salvador by sending a force of Nicaraguan troops across the Salvadoran border under the command of Gen. Alfaro.

This move on the part of President Zelaya, it is believed here, will arouse Guatemala. President Cabrera of Guatemala is a bitter enemy of Zelaya, and it is a practical certainty that Cabrera will go to the aid of the Nicaraguan insurgents and declare war on Zelaya. Honduras, it is also believed here, will be drawn into the conflict. Costa Rica has so far held aloof from the neighboring republics, but that government may become involved before the armistice is ended.

Run Down by Auto; Kidnaped.
Chicago, Oct. 22.—Detectives are investigating the automobile mystery in which Joseph Kubik, 10 years old, is reported to have been run over near his home, and while in an unconscious condition thrown into the automobile and carried away.

According to the belief expressed by his sister he may have been fatally injured.

His sister Annie and a brother have since searched unavailingly for him.

Killed in Fight Over Hogs.
Mattoon, Ill., Oct. 22.—Ralph L. Webster, aged 60, was shot and instantly killed by Dr. J. P. Deckard. Deckard and Webster were neighbors in the village of Paradise, but had some difficulty over hogs. Deckard came immediately to Mattoon and gave himself up to the authorities.

GEN. HOWARD, LAST OF UNION COMMANDERS, DEAD

Great Indian Fighter Expires Suddenly from Heart Disease at His Home.

Burlington, Vt., Oct. 22.—The last of the great union commanders of the civil war, Maj. Gen. Oliver O. Howard, is dead at his home from heart disease. He was 79 years old.

Including Gen. Howard's services in the Indian war, he was probably in more engagements than any other officer in the United States army.

He gained his first experience on the battlefield with the war with the Seminole Indians in Florida. He served with distinction throughout the civil war, being active in nearly every battle on the historic march to the sea. His greatest individual victory during the war was his defeat of Hood, whom he pursued into Alabama prior to the occupation of Atlanta.

He was brevetted major general in March, 1865, with the passage of the following resolution by congress:

"The thanks of the American people and their representatives in congress are hereby tendered to Maj. Gen. Oliver O. Howard and the officers of the Army of the Potomac for their skill and heroic valor, which at Gettysburg, broken and repulsed and drove back, defeated and dispirited, beyond the Appomattox, the veteran army of the rebellion."

He was commander of the department of the east and west at different times.

Gen. Howard was an author of considerable note, and one of his books was written from the life of his once greatest enemy, Nez Perce Joseph.

LIABLE FOR 1894 RIOT DAMAGE

State Supreme Court Rules Chicago Must Settle for Burned Cars.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—By a decision of the Illinois state supreme court the city of Chicago stands to lose approximately $700,000 in judgments for damages wrought in the railroad strike of 1894, unless the United States supreme court, in a case now pending before it, knocks out the Illinois statute on which these claims are based.

The case decided was that of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company against the city and involved $100,000. The railroad claimed damages for several hundred cars burned by the mobs during the riot. The city had contended that a portion of the cars burned were not the property of the plaintiff's company.

HARRY THAW AGAIN OVERRULED

Court of Appeals Holds He Was Not Illegally Committed.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Harry K. Thaw's contention that he was illegally committed to the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, following his acquittal on the charge of murdering Stanford White in New York city, was overruled by the court of appeals.

The court affirmed the appellate division, second department, which upheld a decision of Supreme Justice Mills of White Plains dismissing a writ of habeas corpus and refusing to order Thaw's release from Matteawan.

CONFESSES MURDER OF THREE

Kansas City Man Admits Killing His Two Sisters and Brother-in-Law.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 22.—James McMahon has confessed that he murdered his sisters, Miss Rose McMahon and Mrs. Alonzo Van Royen, and the latter's husband, Alonzo Van Royen, on a farm near Kansas City, Kan., last Tuesday. A long standing family quarrel caused the tragedy. McMahon killed Van Royen in a wood and later went to the Van Royen home and shot his sisters.

Fearing mob violence by a throng gathered about the county jail after the confession, the authorities rushed the murderer and his brother, Patrick McMahon, and Patrick Lamb, a farm hand, who are held as witnesses in the case, to the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing in automobiles. The cries of the mob were heard within the jail and the prisoners begged piteously to be taken to a place of safety. They were slipped quietly out of the jail before the crowd was aware of their departure.

McMahon took sole responsibility for the crime. In his verbal confession he especially exonerated his brother, as he feared the officers would charge him with complicity in the crime.

Socialists Win in Elections.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Extra elections for the diet were held in four Berlin districts, the seats having been declared vacant because the polling lists were improperly made up. The Socialists carried three of the districts on the re-ballot, and the Socialists or Radicals probably carried the other. All the quoted members were Socialists.

Toy Making City's Chief Trade.

Nuremberg is the center of the toy trade of the world. More than half the employees in the toy factories are women and girls. The wages of the female toy-makers are about 5 cents per hour. Of the estimated German toy output of $25,000,000 a year, about $19,000,000 is exported, more than half going to Great Britain and the United States.

WALSH DECISION IS DUE TODAY

Question of Former Banker's Freedom Will Be Passed On.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—With his liberty at the mercy of the United States circuit court of appeals, John H. Walsh and his attorneys are hastening their final fight to save the aged banker from the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth.

Today the judges will decide whether Walsh shall be permitted to remain free while these last steps are being fought out both in the court here and in the supreme court at Washington. The government asked that he be refused further freedom on bail, and the court took the matter under advisement.

There is more at stake in this part of the fight than Walsh's liberty. According to his attorneys, the security of his family and the fortunes of his family are trembling in the balance. If he is to be imprisoned at once, or even put into the custody of the marshal of the court, it will hamper so seriously the negotiations which are under way to straighten out his financial difficulties that it might imperil their success.

That is why the bankers who are interested in his troubles are reported to have appealed to District Attorney Sims to end what they termed Walsh's "persecution."

BRITISH SUBJECTS ALARMED.

Fear War Between U. S. and Japan Over Dominion of Pacific.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 22.—Believing that the United States and Japan are nearing an armed clash over the question of which nation shall dominate the Pacific, and that England will join with Japan to beat this country, four British subjects, two Englishmen and two Scotchmen, have asked to be relieved of enrollment for military service against their native country.

They are students of the state university at Washington, and in the name of King Edward of England have petitioned the state to be left free from the military service required of other students.

Several Japanese students at the same institution have joined the Britishers in the petition.

POWER CO. WINS FROM STATE

State Supreme Court Declares Des Moines River Is Not Navigable.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 22.—The Economy Light and Power Company of Joliet won a sweeping victory over the state of Illinois in the state supreme court, in which the Des Moines river is held not to be a navigable stream. This takes the control of the river from the state government for waterway or any other purposes other than private property. Instead of being a blow at the deep waterway, however, it is a distinct gain, provided the state cares to enter into a stipulation with the power company.

MOTHER'S LIFE ENDANGERED

Loss of Three Children in Day Jeopardizes Parent's Existence.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 22.—The death of her three children in a day has endangered the life of Mrs. Lena Henderson of Sundance. While in the yard with her baby she heard two older children scream, and found that both had been bitten by a large rattlesnake. While caring for them she saw the baby fall into a well and drown. The older children died within a few hours.

Fearful Plans Warship Sold.

London, Oct. 22.—A big sensation was created in political circles by a report that the plans for the last Dreadnought launched, which should have been returned to the admiralty, have disappeared. It is feared they have been sold to some foreign power, perhaps Germany.

Washington, Oct. 22.—A storm that will cover a wide area and sweep from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic, during the latter part of the week, leaving a cool wave in its wake, is being in a special forecast issued by the weather bureau.

American Liquors Liked.

American brandy has been popular in the market of Monterey, Mexico, according to Consul General Hanna of that city. Practically all of the whisky sold in the Mexican city is provided by American distillers and is dispensed in grocery stores and cafes, as well as the bars and hotels. American beer has the run of popular favor among the imported products.

Long Island Murder Stirring two countries.

Deputy Sheriff Nicholas H. Havens and Assistant searching ground where body was found, and Joseph Smith who found body.

Islip, L.I.—The identity of the young woman whose charred skeleton was found in the woods two miles from here on Sunday has been decided after days of search, and her husband arrested and has confessed to the crime.

It has been established, however, that she was recently from Germany, and the German consul at New York, Karl Nessel, has appealed to his country to help clear the mystery.

That she was a person of refined tastes and possibly with means at her command is indicated by the quality of the clothing worn. The correct coat, not less than $25 being of high grade silk with lace inserted and the petticoat was of the finest grade of silk.

It was established that she was murdered, for a bullet was found in the skull, and holes in the bones indicated it had entered the jaw and passed through the roof of the mouth. No autopsy made by Coroner Savage. No revolver or other weapon was found near the body, and death must have been instantaneous, according to the coroner.

The shirtwaist, as the body was of fine black tulle, with embroidered in rose designs. Over this was a brown automobile vest lined with silver gray satin. Under the body were the charred remnants of a yellow broadcloth blouse jacket with plush collar and cuffs.

A gold watch hung from a gold and French blue enamel fob de la phi on the shirtwaist. On the inner case of the watch were scratched the initials "A. I." in German type and "1902." The maker's number is 10,848, and directly below it are the letters "H. P." On the inside of the outer case appear several inscriptions. In one place is "712 V. A." in another "9,731 H." and still another "XXX III." On the rim of the outer case is scratched the

The Hon. William F. Willoughby, assistant director of the census, the exterior of the census bureau and interior, showing the mailing room, from which circulars and printed instructions are being sent out to the 65,000 enumerators, covering every district in the United States.

Facts About the Lucky Thirteenth Census.

Those in charge all young men. Nearly 70,000 people employed to take the census.

540,000,000 cards used to index the census.

Census taking starts April 15. Work will not be completed and printed until June 30, 1932.

Washington, D. C.—The work planning out the "lucky thirteenth census," as it has been popularly termed, is about completed and when on April 15 next the 65,000 enumerators the country start on their trips to learn the past, present and future of each individual in the country the greatest piece of business machinery for a single enterprise ever undertaken will be operating. There are enumerators under 320 supervisors and these supervisors are entirely responsible to the head of the census bureau, the Hon. E. Dana Durand, of Mexico, and his assistants, especially the Hon. William F. Willoughby of Washington, who has relieved Mr. Durand of much of the detail in connection with this census.

A temporary clerical force of 3,000 is being employed to tabulate and arrange the returns, 300 electrical punching machines for transferring data from the schedules to the cards are also employed, doing the work of hundreds of clerks and doing it more accurately and quickly, 100 tabulating machines make the count of items for the different tables in classifying the work. In all about 70,000 people will work. The $14,000,000 appropriated for taking the thirteenth census.

This census will be based entirely on the card index system. A card for every person in the United States—and it is significant that about 90,000,000 cards have been ordered.

Whether this will fall short of the required number remains to be seen. In the process of tabulating such cards so in all there are 540,000,000 cards to be filled out, tabulated and arranged by the department.

$14,000,000 seems like a lot of money to spend on a census and yet when it is figured it is less than six and one-half cents per capita. It does not sound so large. Altogether there has been spent on census taking in the United States $57,000,000, beginning with the first census in 1790.

A significant fact about this census is that the men employed are all young and in the prime of life, the vast majority being around the forty year mark, but they are experts. The Hon. E. Dana Durand of Michigan who directs the work, is only 37 years old, his chief assistant, the Hon. William F. Willoughby of Washington, is 42.

Besides listing the population and itemizing it as the color, sex, age, etc., this census will include such general features as the itemizing of manufacturing industries, agriculture, mines and quarries.

Experts have been working diligently for the past months outlining the work for the enumerators to carry out.

The work of the census, which starts April 15 next, must be closed up as far as enumerators are concerned in the cities in two weeks and in other areas in 30 days. After the facts are all in Washington it will be a matter of two full years at least before the facts will be ready for publication and for reference.

Adventure in a Cyclone.

"Yes, said the Billville story-teller, 'the cyclone carried his house into the next county and set it down there as comfortable as you please, and as he stepped out to the door to survey the country the man who owned the land notified him of suit for trespass, and the tax collector handed him a bill for taxes.'—Atlanta Constitution.

NAVAL COMMANDER'S DAUGHTER SECRETARY MARRIED.
Mrs. Robert Ruffin Barton.

San Francisco.—When Ruth Potts, confessed to be her father and mother, Commander and Mrs. Stacy Potts, U. S. A., that she had been for fifteen months the wife of Robert Barton, paymaster's clerk, the secret which the young people had kept so faithfully was out. Mrs. Barton is now speeding to Philadelphia to join her husband in the naval department. She has been one of the most popular debutantes of the past season, her charming and winning manners and graces having brought to her feet a host of admirers from among the sterner sex. It was with great surprise that her many friends learned that she had been married for fifteen months.

Every one in high civilian and gold braided naval society knows the Potts family and particularly the one who was Miss Ruth Potts. The position of the family is a criterion of social security. Commander Potts and his family live at Mare Island, although the commander is now on the retired list. A sister of Mrs. Potts-Barton is Mrs. Howard Lawton, wife of a navy officer. Miss Georgia Potts, an unmarried sister, is universally acknowledged to be the prettiest girl in the navy set.

The romance grew at Bremerton, Wash. Commander Potts was stationed at the Washington navy yard and with him were the members of his family. Barton was there too. He met Miss Ruth Potts.

Now not far from Bremerton is a place called Chelaha, where perfectly good marriage licenses can be secured from a county clerk and an able minister can be engaged to read the important lines from the book of common prayer. Fifteen months ago a paymaster's clerk from Bremerton, accompanied by a particularly handsome girl, went before the county clerk and the minister, and when they left Chelaha they were joined in a sacred way which no man shall put asunder. But they told no one at the navy yard of the event.

The expenses of the naval service separated the lovers. The young husband was ordered back to Philadelphia. Commander Potts was assigned to Mare Island and with him came his family, including the bride of the clandestine wedding. She received many letters from Philadelphia discreetly addressed to "Miss Ruth Potts." The envelope told no tales. Neither did the girl.

But there was no peace of mind in Philadelphia. Two weeks ago there came a letter which was not discreet. It was addressed to Mrs. Potts. She opened it. In substance it said: "I think I am entitled to the society of my wife. I married your daughter Ruth 15 months ago. I want her to come back to Philadelphia."

The family hush blew the assembly call. There was a council of war. Mrs. Ruth Potts Barton confessed. And now, as consequence, she is eastward bound for Philadelphia with a friend as traveling companion. And Barton the groom in Philadelphia, is now wondering why in the world his courage was so slight that he let 15 months pass before claiming his bride.

Mrs. Potts admitted the circumstances of her daughter's wedding last evening. "Miss Ruth Potts and Mr. Barton were married some time ago but we have just learned of the marriage. My daughter is now on her way east to join her husband in Philadelphia," said Mrs. Potts.

Make Others Happy.

When you rise in the morning form a resolution to make the day a happy one to a fellow-creature. It is easily done; a left-off garment to the woman who needs it, a kind word to the sorrowful, an encouraging expression to the striving—trifles in themselves light as air—will do it, at least for the 24 hours, and if you are young depend upon it it will tell when you are old; and if you are old it will send you gently and happily down the stream of human time to eternity.

"Schochets." A large business is done by the men who are licensed to kill poultry according to the Moslem law. They are known as "schochets" and are employed by the poultry dealers of the East side. Their pay has not been satisfactory of late, and at a recent meeting of their organization a strike was decided upon, which was averted by the recently founded "community."—New York Tribune.

Canoe of Early Britain. There has just been unearthed from the river Annau, near Lockerbie, a relic of early Britain in the shape of a canoe in a wonderful good state of preservation. It is of the type known as "dukouts," the material being the trunk of a black oak tree, about 12 feet long, rudely shaped and hollowed out.—London Standard.

SENSATION SPRUNG BY SHERIFF-ELECT

Names Barber as His Under-Sheriff Instead of Regular Politicians.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Mantowau, Wis., Oct. 27.—A political sensation was sprung when Sheriff-elect Cary named William Houghton, a North Side barber, as under-sheriff, over the heads of at least four active candidates, prominent in politics of the county. Houghton has never taken an active part in politics and his appointment occasioned surprise. The new sheriff has almost completed the organization of his force.
Monies received from a business partnership, entered under certain conditions, can be recovered if the conditions are not fulfilled ruled the municipal court yesterday when W. Zierer, a St. Nazianz photographer, was given judgment for $109 against A. Pezzler for monies given Pezzler as a partner in the business. The complaint alleged that Pezzler shared in the profits on the agreement that he was to take over the business by purchase at certain time but when the time arrived, Pezzler quit the studio. The court refused, however, to compel Pezzler to pay $50 for apprenticeship in the business, on the testimony of local photographers that it is not customary to charge for teaching the business.

Local authorities are not interested in the arrest of a suspect at Stevens Point, reported to be one of the Rockville bank robbers. The fact that the man has three $1,000 bills on his person is said to preclude the possibility that he robbed the Rockville bank as the bank had no funds of that denomination. No trace of the robbers has been discovered.

After having been severely scored, during his absence for alleged defects in the system and after an investigation by an expert employed by the council, Fire Chief Kratz has again been placed in charge of the police patrol alarm system and given carte blanche to repair the system. This is believed to end a fight which has been under way upon Kratz, who is vindicated by the action of the council.

Dismissed from his position at a local hotel and without funds, one Harry West attempted the robbery of the offices of Dr. E. M. Jacobs and was surprised in the act by Dr. Jacobs, who later identified the man who has been placed under arrest. West is said to have fled from Chicago.

The Careful Mother In Selecting a Corset

Selects the Gossard

For Her Daughter

She wants her girl to have a sound mind and body. Her family physician has told her of the serious illnesses which result from constricting the waist line four or five inches.

THE Gossard Corsets

"They Lace in Front"

are cut exactly like a surgical bandage. They gently support the organs, impel correct poise, deep breathing, correct position both sitting and standing, and have beautiful artistic lines.

Gossard Corsets are not expensive—as low in price as $5.00. They are made of durable fabrics, light but strong, outwear several ordinary corsets, and are a real economy, because $5.00 invested in a scientific corset, correctly fitted, may save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills.

Fortunate indeed is the girl whose wise mother selects the Gossard for her first corset.

MRS. E. B. DILTZ,

an expert corsetiere, would like to meet every mother to explain these features.

STOLE FROM A MAN WHO BEFRIENDED HIM

I. D. Mohr, Believed to Be a Tramp, Stole $400 from A. Olson, Who Kept Him Overnight.
[Special to the Gazette.]
[Special to the Gazette.]

Monroe, Wis., Oct. 27.—I. D. Mohr, believed to be a tramp, has been brought here from the town of York to await trial in the Green county court on a charge of stealing a box containing $400 from Abraham Olson, an aged resident of York township. Mohr went to the Olson place Sunday morning and remained overnight. After he had left a box containing $400 was found to be missing and Mohr was suspected of the theft.
It happened that a grandson of Olson was at the house to see his grandpa on Sunday, and did not like the appearance of the stranger. Consequently, the next morning, he sent Charles Lech to the Olson house to see if everything was all right. Lech arrived just after the discovery of the theft, and immediately set out after Mohr. He was located in a hollow near the Olson home, where he had stopped to open the box. Lech threatened to shoot him and Mohr surrendered. He was taken before Justice of the Peace A. C. Lin, and bound over to circuit court. Mohr claims he is a doctor and says he is from both Milwaukee and Chicago.
William Staufferman was called to conduct with the insurance firm of Eaton. T. Grant to accept a more interesting position in Chicago. He has been with the local firm for nearly ten years, having charge of the office work in latter years. He will be succeeded by Lloyd Steinman.
The supreme court at Madison has for removing a pole which the company had erected in an alley near the Ross livery barn. Judge Grimm decided that the mayor was authorized to remove the pole, the same being an obstruction to the alley, which was used for public use.

Mrs. Anton Miller of this city was also given a verdict against the Woodward of the World to the sum of one thousand dollars.
Mrs. Rosema Dettweiler, wife of afternoon at two o'clock.

It is believed that Noah E. Sage, ar-

ROCKFORD FIRM IS TO

Benjamin Guigley & Co. to Establish Live Poultry Station in Janesville.

Benjamin Guigley & Co. of Rockford, Illinois, one of the largest firms in this section of the country handling live poultry and eggs, have recently moved to the old Robinson building and will establish a headquarters for their business in this section of the state. Not only will they handle live fowls, but will also buy and ship eggs to the Chicago market. Mr.
Guigley will personally superintend the work at the Janesville branch, and will bring with him several expert workmen and also employ from fifty to seventy-five local workmen to tober 1st to February 1st, the chickens and turkeys being sent to Chicago, where an outlet store is located, tened. The Benjamin Guigley Company has been doing business in this

BELOIT MAN LEASES
THE CARLETON HOTEL

Jacob Horst Buys Out Touton's Interest in Edgerton Hotel—Takes Possession November 1.

Edgerton, Oct. 27.—Jacob Horst, clerk at the Hotel Hilton at Beloit for the past three years, has taken a lease upon the Carleton hotel in this city and will assume charge of the place on November 1.
Mr. Horst secured the hotel from
C. T. Touton, the proprietor, with whom he has been in communication
for some time.
The Carleton hotel has thirty-three
rooms and is modern and up-to-date in every particular. Its scale of prices ranges from $2 to $2.50 a day and it is located within a block of the railroad depot, being particularly convenient for traveling men. It will be the new proprietor's aim to keep the house up to its present high standard.
Since "Jake" Horst went to Beloit three years ago with W. G. McGary, from the Gault House in Sterling, he has won many friends by his pleasant
manner and gentlemanly demeanor,
and he will carry away with him the
best wishes of a large number of his patrons. During his residence here
Mr. Horst met Miss Maudie Mc-
Michael, daughter of S. D. McMichael, and a short time ago married her.
Mr. and Mrs. Horst will reach here on Saturday of this week and they are already packing their household effects.
Mr. Touton has made no plans for the immediate future and will spend a portion of his time in Edgerton,
Janesville and his old home at Port Athol. Mr. Touton has conducted the Carleton for the past six years and the citizens of Edgerton are sorry to see him leave. The Carleton is one of the most modern of hotels in small cities and has been well conducted since Mr. Touton took the management.

need be no fear as to its adoption.
It is up to the citizens of Janesville to decide the matter and the first thing is to secure the signatures necessary to call for a special election to decide what to do in the matter.

The above views were expressed by a man familiar in every detail with the present form of city government and the handling of municipal affairs.
It was not a snap judgment taken on the spur of the moment, but made after a study of the progressive ideas of the law. The gentleman knows what he talks about and is in a position to say much more than has been already said relative to the present form of government and the conditions that arise.
Thus far the names calling for the holding of a special election have received the endorsement of a goodly number of the citizens. The names are, many of them, persons who know the condition from the ground up and declare the present political system in municipal affairs. It is not a move on the part of republicans or democrats, but a step toward the ideal form of city government.
The Gazette will be glad to publish communications on this matter so that the voters will be able to thoroughly understand the question which is labored to be presented to them for consideration. The communications should all be addressed care of News Editor, Gazette, and signed, although the signature will not be published if not desired. The writers are urged to discuss the matter broad-and so that arguments for and against the plan may be given publicly.

LADIES' ORCHESTRA
WAS MUCH ENJOYED

Commonwealth Orchestra Pleased
Large Audience at Methodist Church Last Night.

Hearty applause and frequent recalls was the greeting extended to the Commonwealth Ladies' Orchestra, who gave the first entertainment of the Epworth League lecture course at the Methodist church last evening.
A large crowd was present at the concert, many of the musicians and music lovers of the city attending.
The concert was of the popular order, and appealed not only to those who know and love music, but to those who have grasped but the rudiments.
The young ladies are very capable musicians and have both popular and classical music with cleverness. Their leader, Mr. Ashton Lewis, is an artist of ability, who not only leads the orchestra, but plays the violin exceedingly well. His own composition, "Pantasia," was encored, and then his rendition of "The Mocking Bird," with imitations of the singing of the bird, pleased the audience so that he was again recalled. Miss Helen True, soloist, who appeared twice on the program, has a very clear and sweet voice, but was slightly hampered by a cold. Miss Inez Lawson gave a splendid exhibition of cornet playing.
The program was especially pleasing, the numbers being arranged so as to make every minute of the evening enjoyable. A novelty in the way of musical entertainment was the number, "The Musicians' Hold-up." Each player is given a chance to exhibit his talent, and apparently puts forth his best efforts, but these seem ridiculous to the others who laugh and sneer. This angers the contestants who leave their seats. Then they return and play together.

A DOCTOR'S SLEEP.
Found He Had To Leave Off Coffee.
Many persons do not realize that a bad stomach will cause insomnia.
Coffee drinking, being such an ancient and respectable form of dispa-tion, few realize that the drug-Caffine—contained in the coffee and tea is one of the principal causes of dyspepsia and nervous troubles.
Without their usual portion of coffee or tea, the coffee lovers are nervous, irritable and fretful. That's the way with a whiskey drinker. He has got to have his dram "to settle his nerves"—habit.
To have off coffee is an easy matter if you want to try it, because Postum—well boiled according to directions—gives a gentle but natural support to the nerves and does not contain any drug—nothing but food.
Physicians know this to be true,
as one from Ga. writes:
"I have cured myself of a long standing case of Nervous Dyspepsia by leaving off coffee and using Postum," says the doctor.
"I also enjoy refreshing sleep, to which I had been an utter stranger for 20 years."
In treating Dyspepsia in its various types, I find little trouble when I can induce Postum. The Dr. is right and "there's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pink.

one appears from time to time. They

for the past three years, has taken

this city and will assume charge of the place on November 1.
Mr. Horst secured the hotel from
C. T. Touton, the proprietor, with whom he has been in communication
for some time.
The Carleton hotel has thirty-three
rooms and is modern and up-to-date
in every particular. Its scale of

has won many friends by his pleasant
manner and gentlemanly demeanor,
and he will carry away with him the
best wishes of a large number of his patrons. During his residence here
Mr. Horst met Miss Maudie Mc-
Michael, daughter of S. D. McMichael,
and a short time ago married her.
Mr. and Mrs. Horst will reach here
on Saturday of this week and they
are already packing their household
effects.
Mr. Touton has made no plans for the immediate future and will spend
a portion of his time in Edgerton,
Janesville and his old home at Port
Athol. Mr. Touton has conducted the
